

Congratulations! You have been scheduled for your technology migration. Let's get prepared

Hello Nay,

Congratulations, your individual technology migration to Johnson & Johnson has been scheduled for:

Monday, December 1, 2025

Your Next Steps:

1. Block time: Please block your calendar from 5 PM the day before your migration through 7 AM on your migration day to ensure we can migrate you successfully.
2. Watch your inbox: Ahead of migration, watch for countdown messages with more details and next steps. Webinars and training opportunities will also be provided to help you prepare.

Support throughout the migration process will include:

- Transferring your OneDrive, email files and history to your new J&J account.
- Replacing your Intra-Cellular PC and/or iPad with a J&J device.
- Setting up your current mobile devices to access applicable J&J systems.
- Accessing Intra-Cellular MS Teams and SharePoint sites.
- Rescheduling previously created Teams and Zoom meetings using your new J&J account.
- Providing access to apps via the J&J app store.

Staying updated:

Want to know more about your technology migration?

We will walk you through your migration journey step-by-step over the next few months.

To see your journey ahead and find out more, visit:

➔ J&J Technology Preparation

For more information:

Need help with J&J ID or password?

Visit the J&J Credentials ITforMe page

Migration status & details

Visit mymigration.jnj.com

Have additional questions?

Contact Individual Technology Migration Support

---

All content © Johnson & Johnson Services, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

The information within this communication is subject to legal requirements including consultation with works councils and other employee representative bodies, as required. This email is intended for internal use only. It should not be forwarded or otherwise disclosed beyond the recipients.